

2020 MIBFN Network Meetings and Community Conversations Racial Equity Presenter Overview

Racial Equity Presenter Summary:

Network Meeting Racial Equity Presenters are individuals who reflect and represent the community they serve and who have experience and expertise teaching within their communities. Presenters are asked to develop a 60-minute presentation that aligns with the topic/theme of their local Network Meeting and share their expertise through both their lived and on-the-job experiences.

Racial Equity Presenters support the 2020 MIBFN NMCC by:

- Disclosing any conflicts of interest that may interfere with the planning and/or implementation of the NMCC.
- Submitting the necessary materials to apply for continuing education credits.
- Designing and presenting a 1-hour racial equity presentation, development of this presentation should include, but not limited to, addressing the following:
  - Exploring/establishing racial and ethnic disparities and inequities
  - Histories
  - Racial equity strategies
  - Racial equity vision and goals for birth and breastfeeding

MIBFN supports Racial Equity Presenters by:

- Supporting presenters, as needed, in gathering documentation required for MIBFN to apply for continuing education.
- Providing a $500 stipend in gratitude for time and expertise.
